Issue 2, February 2008

Greetings!!!

We had the Chinese New Year last February 7, 2008, The Year of the Brown Rat. A Rat Year is said to be a time for hard work, activity, and renewal. Some say that this is a good year to begin a new job, get married, launch a product, or make a fresh start.

May the blessings and growth we experienced in the previous years continue, and may we flourish as a company, as a team and as individuals!

Good fortune be upon us throughout the year!!!

Shiva's wedding

Shiva Shankar from our Bangalore office wed Usha Kumari on February 03, 2008. Mike & Kumar attended the 2 day traditional Indian wedding ceremony at Chennai. Interestingly, part of the custom was "Kashi Yatra" Here, the bridegroom, in a symbolic renunciation of all worldly ties, sets off to the holy city of Kashi (also known as Benaras), by the banks of the Ganges, to follow a life of austerity. The bride's father stops him and tries to persuade him to stay, by offering the hand of his daughter in marriage.

About me... I recently joined psg in early January this year and I am very happy to be a part of the psg family!! I am married with three children. The latest addition to our family, a healthy baby girl, Christen was born on February 18, 2008.

Happy Chinese New Year to all! Although a little late, I hope you all enjoyed reading the second issue of our newsletter. For this copy and the succeeding issues, I have been tasked to compile activities, events, work updates and highlights, and other interesting features for the month. Should you be interested in submitting anything for our newsletter, feel free to send me your stories, pictures, etc. at dante.pascual@psgasia.com. We will do our best to accommodate and include everyone's contributions. Thank you and may we all have a prosperous year!!! Mabuhay!!
